Dear Shri Dutt

The Directorate of Public Grievances (DPG) was set up vide Government of India Resolution No. A-11013/1/88-Ad. I dated March 25, 1988 to look into unresolved public grievances on issues pertaining to some Central Government organizations.

2. The DPG has been focusing on the qualitative disposal of the grievances as a result of which around ninety percent of cases taken up are decided partially or completely in favour of the complainants. All cases received in the DPG are processed through Public Grievance Redress and Monitoring System (PGRAMS) and status could be tracked through online portal.

3. In order to increase online awareness of the DPG, it is proposed to display scroll message/note or pop-up on the websites of identified Ministries/Departments that are part of the mandate of the Directorate for enhanced outreach among the general public about the role and responsibility of the DPG. The draft scroll message to be displayed on the website is proposed below:

If complainants fail to get internal redress, DPG (<https://dpq.gov.in/>) can be approached for redress of grievance.

I would be grateful, if scroll note or similar message is prominently displayed on the website of your Ministry/Department.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
